Preparing for Your Clinic Visit

- □ Organize your medical history it may be helpful to create a binder of your medical history containing the following items:
 - Doctors/Institutions seen
 - Diagnosis
 - Personal records of symptoms (headache journal, pain history, etc.)
 - Medical records lab tests including genetic test results, scans (MRI, X-ray, CT), pathology, and other medical related documentation
 - Complete and current list of medications including over-the-counter medications, vitamins, and supplements
- □ Make a list of questions and prioritize your concerns
- □ Confirm time, location and parking for clinic visit
- □ If needed, request an interpreter (sign language or foreign language) for the visit

What to Bring to Your Clinic Visit

- D Photo ID
- □ Medical and pharmacy insurance cards
- □ Referral authorization, if applicable
- □ Form of payment for services not covered by insurance
- □ Preferred pharmacy name and phone number
- □ Guardianship, custody or consent papers, if someone other than a parent accompanies a minor child
- □ Required paperwork from clinic, if applicable
- □ Medical history binder or records (see above list of relevant materials)
- □ List of questions and concerns
- □ A notebook for writing notes or referral information
- □ Consider bringing a family member or friend. Your companion can remind you of important things you wish to discuss, ask questions, and take notes.

During the Clinic Visit

- □ Make sure all of your questions are answered and you understand the information
- □ Request a visit summary with follow-up instructions
- $\hfill\square$ Find out who to call for questions or results

After the Clinic Visit

- $\hfill\square$ Schedule and follow-up with clinic recommendations
- □ If you cannot schedule your next clinic visit, put a reminder in your calendar to call to arrange a follow-up visit
- □ Contact your doctor's office with any changes in symptoms that concern you or problems that are not resolving based on recommended interventions.

